

Dear Parents and Carers,

As we reach the final week of term, the children can look back with pride on everything they have achieved. This week, teachers and teaching assistants have been creating displays to celebrate the children's writing, ranging from Gingerbread Man character descriptions in Reception to narrative descriptions inspired by The Nowhere Emporium.

This week was jam-packed with Christmas performances, finishing with Year 1 and Year 2's Wiggly Nativity. It has been wonderful to see so many families and friends joining us for these events, and we know how much it has meant to the children. Thank you for your continued support, and please look out for more opportunities to join us at school in the new year.

This week, we also bid farewell to Mrs Bristow, our Pandas class teacher, who has been a valued member of Warden House for the past 10 years. We are incredibly grateful for her dedication and the positive impact she has had on our children. We wish Mrs Bristow every success in her exciting new venture.

Thank you once again to everyone who supported the PTFA Christmas Fair. The event was a great success, raising a fantastic £1,100 for PTFA funds. Each class has already benefited from a special treat for their class party, and we are also very grateful for the generous donation of board and table top games for every class. We would like to extend our sincere thanks to all the PTFA volunteers who work so hard to make these opportunities possible for our children and school community.

From all the team at Warden House, we wish you a peaceful and happy Christmas and look forward to welcoming the children back to school on Monday 5th January.

Mrs Cooper.

Book Recommendation

This week's book recommendation comes from Huckleberry in Year 2

Book: Dear Father Christmas by Alan Durant

"Because a girl writes a letter to Father Christmas, and he writes back all the time, its very Christmasy"

He would recommend this book to children in Year 2.
